(U) SOUTHWEST BORDER(U) Arizona – Cartel Member Wanted for Border Patrol Agent's Murder Lands in Texas

(U) Tucson – A sixth individual charged in the 2010 murder of a US Border Patrol agent in Arizona made his initial appearance in federal court yesterday afternoon. Mexican authorities extradited Heraclio Osorio-Arellanes to the United States on Tuesday. He faces nine counts, including first-degree murder, for the shootout resulting in agent Brian Terry's death. Osorio-Arellano is one of five men who formed a cartel rip crew, which robbed marijuana smugglers past the border. On 14 December 2010, they encountered Terry and three other agents near Rio Rico. The encounter led to a gunfight that resulted in Terry's death.
